

FRIENDS OF YAD TABENKIN -- KIBBUTZ MOVEMENT ARCHIVES

Thanks for your generous gift!

In the spirit of kibbutz-style partnership, North American Friends of Oranim -- a US 501(c) (3) organization -- is helping to collect all donations on behalf of the Friends of Yad Tabenkin.

To make a charitable donation, visit the NAFOO website (<https://www.friendsoforanim.org/>) and select "Friends of Yad Tabenkin" from the dropdown menu. Or, send a check payable to "North American Friends of Oranim" to NAFOO, 1111 E. Fairy Chasm Road, Bayside, WI, 53217 USA. Use the check memo to designate your gift. Contact FriendsofYadTabenkin@gmail.com or look for "Kibbutz Studies Partners" at <https://www.friendsoforanim.org/>.

Option 1: Muki Tsur Tribute Fund

The "Muki Tsur Tribute Fund," created by the Friends of Yad Tabenkin Advisory Board to celebrate Yad Tabenkin's 50th anniversary year, honors the work and legacy of Muki Tsur, one of Israel's outstanding public intellectuals and a foremost historian of the kibbutz movement. Over the course of several decades, Tsur's research, teaching, and leadership activity, including his involvement with Oranim College, has had a huge impact on kibbutz and Israeli society, the field of modern Jewish studies, and Israel-diaspora relations. The Muki Tsur Tribute Fund will be used to support Yad Tabenkin's efforts to...

- Make Yad Tabenkin's precious assets widely accessible through digitization
- Fund research scholarships and international conferences
- Enable the translation of key historical documents into English
