In celebration of the 50th anniversary of Yad Tabenkin (Tel Aviv, Israel), the archival and research center of the kibbutz movement, we are delighted to announce the creation of the Muki Tsur Tribute Fund. Honoring the work and legacy of Muki Tsur, one of Israel's outstanding public intellectuals and a foremost historian of the kibbutz movement, the fund will be used to support Yad Tabenkin's efforts to (a) make Yad Tabenkin's precious assets widely accessible through digitization; (b) offer research scholarships and international conferences; and (c) enable the translation of key historical documents into English. Charitable contributions to the Muki Tsur Tribute Fund are welcome. For more information, contact FriendsofYadTabenkin@gmail.com or visit <https://www.friendsoforanim.org/>.
